Customer Reviews

Cheers to you, for understanding the most completely ridiculous things we invent and or completely mess up. The one thing I could complain about was the picture size, and its a minor issue considering that all Kindle types make it like that. Bravo on this, and I am hoping for another series of lol moment books

Funny autocorrects if you have a dirty mind. If you don't and you want to read this, get a dirty mind

People tend to stare and draw away from a person sitting alone and laughing helplessly. I live in an apartment and I was afraid my neighbors would call 911 if I read too long! It is laugh-out-loud and better-empty-the bladder-BEFORE-starting-to-read funny.

It's not often I come down hard on a book like this, but here goes: First off, this isn't a book - it's a collection of screenshots of text conversations. Which is fine, alright. But, well, they're mostly not that funny. The jokes are awkward, often look faked, and usually just fall flat without getting me to crack a smile - and come on, I look at silly youtube videos and cat gifs all day, it's not hard! What really struck me was the complete lack of effort, like this author didn't even try. There wasn't even so much as an attempt to format these conversations, they look like images just slapped together from numerous sources - and in fact, they are. Websites making fun of autocorrect mistakes have been around since it became a commonplace feature, and they steal from each other all the time, sure. But I have never seen someone steal the images of someone else, crop out that site's watermark and logo, and then try to SELL it. Admittedly, it's not quite illegal - it's just a con. If it's "epic text fails" you want, just Google it. I promise you'll find funnier stuff, and for free. Incidentally, if you're still set on this purchase, note that it contains some material not appropriate for children.

This is the first time in ages I've actually laughed out loud reading something. The only complaint I have about this book is I wish it was longer!

Really funny and unbelievable texts. I read it in one sitting and it made me stay up a couple of hours past my normal bedtime. This morning my roommate asked me what the hell I was doing in my room last night cause he could hear me laughing like a hyena.

Most I hadn't heard before. Laughed at all the autocorrects. Some language use and sex references in there. Over all, really hilarious. Four stars, not five because some of them seemed like they might have been made up or edited.

This is so hilarious!!! I hope he puts together another one! ...Pleeeese!!! Love it A definite must read. In fact, while waiting for the next book (hopefully) I will retread this one...long live autocorrect!!!!
